It's amazing how easily Brittain livens up drab surroundings, especially when she's caught in such charming dishabille. If it's true that one picture is worth a thousand words, then two of Jordan (overleaf) leaves us way too short on space to do her justice.

Tracey Barrons (here) and Lisa Jeaneene (overleaf) prove that you can achieve great muscle tone anywhere. Tracey limbers up in bed; Lisa improvises an aerobic workout.

Alley Baggett isn't grasping at straws, she's just taking advantage of a beautiful fall day in the country. Tonya Offer (overleaf) wavered about whether or not to wear her thong. Our best guess is that Tonya kept it off her.

After a walk with her pooch
Brutus, Canadian-born Lexie sheds hat and coat to reveal a sensational at-home ensemble
of patterned thigh-highs, gold-
weave bodysuit and platforms.
